DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/8/04 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-5, 11-16, and 21-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yamada et al. (444,496).

Regarding claim 1, Yamada discloses a program displaying step (19A), at least one interactive program listing displaying step (19B,19C,19D,19E), an allowing step (remote controller 21), and a second program displaying step (page 5, lines 36-41).

Regarding claim 2, interactive program listing in Figure 2 has both program title and program channel (see 19B-19E).

Regarding claim 3, the television signals in Yamada meets the television program as claimed.

Regarding claim 4, see remote controller 21.

Regarding claim 5, see Figure 2.

Regarding claims 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15, in addition of above, Yamada further shows a means for displaying a program (11), a means for displaying a least one interactive program listing (18), and means for allowing the use to select the at least one interactive program listing (21), and means for displaying a second program (17).

Regarding claims 21, 22, 23, 24, and 25, in addition of above, Yamada further shows a video display controller (18), a display (19), and a microprocessor (17).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 6, 16, and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yamada et al. (444,496).

Regarding claims 6, 16 and 26, Yamada does not specify that the first portion is smaller than the second portion as claimed. Instead, the first portion is larger than the second portion. In any event, it is well known in the art that display windows can be configured to have different sizes. It is a matter of design choice. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to modify Yamada so that the first portion is smaller than the second portion.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 7-10, 17-20, 27-30 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
